

PROCLAMATION

BY THE

Governor of the State of Texas

41-2249

TO ALL TO WHOM THESE PRESENTS SHALL COME:

Pursuant to Article IV, Section 14 of the Texas Constitution, I, William P. Clements, Jr., Governor of Texas, do hereby veto H.B. 981 because of the following objections:

This bill would provide an exemption from the state sales and use tax for motion picture production companies, broadcasting stations, and lessors of motion pictures. The intent of the bill as introduced was to provide incentives for motion picture production within the State of Texas. It was targeted at companies in this industry, exempting the taxable items used by them in the production of motion pictures. Through the course of the legislative process, the bill was modified to expand the sales tax exemptions to be much broader than necessary for the best interests of economic development.

The Secretary of State shall take notice of this action and notify the Legislature.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the seal of the State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this 19 day of June, 1989.
